Sarah M. Wilson

Sarah Wilson brings over 20 years of experience in crime scene investigation. Sarah started her career as a Forensic Technician in 2000, with Hampton Police Division in Hampton, Virginia where she progressed to a Master Forensic Specialist. In 2011, Sarah relocated to San Antonio, Texas where she is currently employed with Seguin Police Department as an Evidence Forensic Supervisor. She holds a Master's of Science in the Administration of Justice and Security and a Bachelor's of Science in Governmental Administration with a concentration in criminal justice and a minor in forensics. Sarah is a graduate of the National Forensic Academy. She also holds an instructor certification from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement and has taught classes on crime scene management, crime scene investigation, bloodstain pattern analysis and assists in instructing shooting reconstruction. Sarah is an instructor with the National Forensic Academy and an adjunct professor with Texas Lutheran University. She is a court recognized expert in crime scene investigation and latent fingerprints. Sarah is a Certified Crime Scene Analyst through the International Association of Identification. Sarah is highly sought after as an instructor and has presented to prosecutors, law enforcement officers, fire investigators, medical professionals, criminalists, and students.